

State of...Pennsylvania.....:SS:
County of.....McKean.....:

I, Earl Jones, of Kane, Pennsylvania, was one of four men who were attacked simultaneously by Timberline, a Female Lobo. She was in her den when we entered her large enclosure to secure her pups. When she heard us she dashed out and charged us and it was only by a phalanx of pitch forks that we were able to back from the gate without injury.

Earl Jones

Sworn to and subscribed before me this.....21st.....
day of.....January.....,1932.

Emile Huger
Notary Public, Kane, Pa.
My commission expires March 25, 1933.